Causes Twenty-Four Thousand Shots in Portugal.

By Reading the Proclamation of the Portuguese Republic—Citizens and Soldiers Arrested.

Perfect quiet reigned in Oporto, Sunday. Government reinforcements have arrived from all parts of the country. Three hundred civilians and soldiers were arrested Sunday. All the Republican newspapers have been seized by the Government. The front of the Town Hall and several buildings in other streets, where conflicts took place Saturday, are much damaged and battered. The King's portrait, which hung in the Town Hall, was destroyed by the rebels. Several of the soldiers who were wounded in the conflict died Sunday. Most of the insurgents who were arrested themselves were conveyed aboard a mail steamer. It is estimated that 24,000 shots from rifles and machine guns were fired during the day.

The police have arrested an actor named Vivaldi, who read the Portuguese proclamation of the Republic from a balcony of the town hall. The actor, a parish priest of Oporto, was arrested Sunday.
